A MESSAGE FROM JENNIFER RICE

Prepare our hearts for the Lord.

Welcome to Advent! Over the weekend, I was officially allowed to decorate (Grant and the boys are post-Thanksgiving purists somehow!) and prepare our home for Christmas. While it is important to create a space that is warm and inviting the spirit of Christmas, it is even more essential to our spiritual lives to prepare our hearts and souls for the Lord's coming.

Wherever we are at this moment in time – strong in our prayer life, struggling with faith and its practice or somewhere in the middle, Advent is a perfect time to honestly and humbly assess where we are in our relationship with the Lord and whether our hearts are open to fully receive Him.

Consider these questions: Am I praying daily by myself, with my spouse or family? Am I participating fully in the Mass? Do I set aside time for prayer to listen to what God is asking of me? Are there things with which I am struggling and need to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation? If any of your answers require further work, we have something for you this Advent.

1) Hallow + Prayer App or on your computer – you can use this for free until Easter as our gift to you to increase and deepen your prayer life! Advent prayers and music, Holy Hour meditations, Rosary, Gospel and homilies, family prep for Mass, help with sleep, stress, anxiety and grief…there are thousands of prayers from 1 minute to 60. Go to hallow.com/holydaypackage to get started and try the #pray25 Advent challenge with the cast of The Chosen! Then, join us Monday, November 28 at 7 PM in the Davidson Rd Rooms to learn more, pray with us, and keep an eye out for future Hallow highlights.

2) Word Among Us Advent Companion – pray with the daily readings, reflections and articles all through Advent to explore the beauty of the Advent Scriptures.

3) Join us in Adoration – whether in the chapel in silence (all day Tuesday through Friday) or on December 14 at 6 PM in Anchored in Adoration with music, testimony and a prayer team; a Holy Hour commitment can go a long way in bringing peace to our hearts as we bask in Jesus' presence.

4) Visit our Advent webpage for resource ideas and more events, including information on our Penance service and Live Nativity: stbrendans.net/advent-2022

May Our Lord richly bless this heart-preparation time of Advent and ready us as we enter our liturgical year of prayer!

CONFIRMATION DAMASCUS RETREAT TEEN TESTIMONIES

As part of their preparation to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation this Spring, our 8th grade Faith Formation and School students attended a Confirmation Retreat at Damascus Catholic Mission Campus the weekend of November 11-13.

Enjoy reading their testimonies below:

"I really enjoyed all of the high adventure activities and getting away from all of the chaos of normal life for a couple of days to enjoy the peace of Damascus." ~ Anonymous

"My favorite part of the retreat was the activities we did during the day, especially archery tag. I also enjoyed getting to know my counselor, Tyler." ~ Colin Bray

"My experience at the 8th grade Confirmation retreat was so amazing and powerful. My counselor, Anna, was amazing – so filled with the Holy Spirit. My favorite part of the Confirmation retreat was prayer ministry. The Lord really spoke to me during this time which was such an eye-opening experience for me. This made me so excited for CYSC this summer!" ~ Lily Hatfield

"I grew in my faith while having a ton of fun! I had the courage to go all the way up on the giant swing for the first time." ~ Anonymous

"My favorite part about the religious retreat was archery tag. While playing, we were all cold and then we prayed to be warmed. God warmed us and we were able to play another match." ~ Timothy Ridgway

"We enjoyed the 'cross the line' activity, along with the Friday night skits. The 'cross the line activity' was very powerful. God loving us unconditionally was very much a huge part of the retreat." ~ Leanna and Madeline Solley

"It was magical. They would pray for things then they would occur." ~ Anonymous

Please continue to pray for these students as they prepare their hearts for Confirmation!

First Sunday of Advent

Is 2:1-5 | Rom 13:11-14 | Mt 24:37-44

Written by
THE FAITHFUL DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Don't get me wrong. I love vacations and weekends away. But the night and day before? It's always a whirlwind of laundry, packing, and shopping for groceries and essential car snacks. I knew we were going away. I could have gotten my act together earlier. Next trip, I tell myself. Then the cycle repeats itself. Advent can be that way. This year's going to be the year! No rushing around, no crazy last-minute shopping, no stress: I'm going to study the daily readings, read that Advent devotional, settle into the season of waiting. Today's readings speak not only to procrastinators like me but also to the planners: Wherever we are on that continuum, Advent gives us an opportunity to ready our souls for Jesus' coming. It's less about what we do when than about preparing our hearts. Through prayer, study and the liturgies of this season, we can ask God to help us clean house within and prepare for Jesus' coming.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Today is not only the first Sunday of Advent, but the first day of the liturgical year. Today's readings encourage us to prepare for Christ's coming. I love St. Paul's imagery: "Let us then throw off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light. Let us … put on the Lord Jesus Christ." Just as we make resolutions for the new calendar year, Advent affords us an opportunity to start anew. However, the gift of our faith reminds us that we are not alone in this! We can seek the help of the Holy Spirit through prayer and turn to the accountability partners who sit in the pews next to us at Sunday Mass. We, in turn, can be a light to others through our words, attitudes, and actions. As we light our houses and light our Christmas trees this year, we can remember to put on the armor of light ourselves as we begin this holy season.

ACTION Even with the best of intentions, the holiday season can become busy. As you go about errands or prepare your home, make an effort to listen to Advent hymns or reflections.
