KOLLAR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners,

I hope you and your families had a Holy and Blessed Christmas and wish you all a Peaceful New Year!

A couple weeks ago, we published in the bulletin the 2022-23 Parish Financial Impact Report – a summary of our financials for this past fiscal year (view it at www.stbrendans.net/stewardship). As you can see from the report, our parish is doing well. Your bountiful giving allowed us to pay off the ONE Campaign expansion in just four years. Father and I are very grateful for your continued generosity and for your faithfulness to fulfill your campaign pledges, allowing the expansion of our parish campus to be a huge success. THANK YOU!

In addition to the payoff, your financial support enabled an important aspect of managing our parish. Working with your input, Father, Kate (our school principal), Home and School, and the Finance Committee, were able to designate funds to further enhance and maintain campus capital improvements as part of our yearly operating budget. Just as with your own finances, we never know what can happen in the future, so we try to plan ahead for things that could go wrong and were able to make those types of improvements as well. Through careful planning, St Brendan Parish was able to position and manage $490,755 in capital improvements over the last year.

PROJECTS COMPLETED LAST YEAR:

HVAC/new doors/regular maintenance	$ 88,677
Restoration of the sanctuary flooring	$ 40,665
Replace flooring of school classrooms (H&S)	$ 48,493
Lighting of some school classrooms	$ 47,059
Replace rooftop units	$ 51,167
Replacement of baptismal font	$ 14,910
Enhance parish office security	$ 28,662
Enhanced parish controlled access	$ 30,794
New asphalt patching/stripping	$ 65,258
Organ and risers	$ 46,808
Painting church	$ 28,262
Total	$490,755

I am very grateful for our operations staff here at St Brendan:

Ben Romaker, Julie Matheny, Dina Harder, Teresa Boyne, Jill Butler, Clara Herr, Lee Salcone, Kaylee Parsons, Chris Morris, Mike Gill, Ross Myers, and John Bettinger

A special thanks as well to our Finance Council members:

Wilma D'Souza, Averel Meden, Bob Cozzarelli, Al Crock, Martin Mitchell, and Mike Monfredi

I truly appreciate all of their help in caring for our financial needs and carrying out the processes to attain our goals, knowing that I could never perform those tasks alone. We are so blessed to have such a talented and generous group of people in our parish family.

Thank you to all our parishioners for your commitment to our parish this past year. The giving of your time, talent and treasure continues to bear fruit here at St Brendan's and in the building up of God's Kingdom here on earth!

I would also like to extend my gratitude to all who worked so hard to make our Christmas celebrations truly wonderful. Thanks to all of you who were involved in decorating our church and setting up for the multitude of liturgies this season and throughout the liturgical year. And a special "thank you" to the devoted members of the various ministries in our parish, especially to those who work quietly and diligently behind the scenes.

This weekend, during the Feast of the Holy Family, we come together to celebrate as one big parish family. As we continue to celebrate the birth of our Savior, let's strive to share with each other that same level of mercy that God abundantly shares with each of us. Whatever the circumstances are in your life right now – grief or joy, struggle or success, faith or doubt – Jesus has lived it Himself, and longs to live it with you. Choose life with Jesus! Let Him be born again in your heart. Allow Him to enter into your moments and give you the life for which you were created.

Let's make an effort to carry the sentiment of the Christmas season into the New Year as we contemplate our resolutions. May we strive to become more active and involved in the life of the parish – sharing our time and talents with our faith family who can be impacted by God's love that burns within us. After all, that's what God did for us on that very first Christmas when He sent us a human vessel of His love, Jesus Christ, to spread that love and light throughout the world.

In closing, my prayer is that you, your families and your homes be filled with much Peace, Joy and Love, now and in the new year to come.

God Bless,

Tom Kollar
Business Manager at St Brendan Parish

A NOTE OF GRATITUDE

From Father Bob, Father Weldit, and Father Jacob – We would like to thank all of you for the many cards, gifts, and well wishes for Christmas. This is always a wonderful outpouring of love that we do not take for granted.

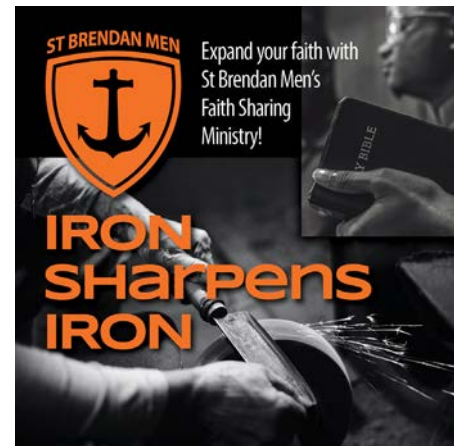

Please know that it is a joy for us to be your priests here at St Brendan and to lead you to Jesus Christ!

You and your families remain in our prayers as we continue to celebrate the Christmas season. May the light of our Newborn King continue to shine on you and through you as we begin a new Year of Grace, 2024.

Contact Grant at ricekris8813@att.net

A MORNING OF REFLECTION

January 13, 10 AM-12 PM, experience the beautiful hospitality and joy of the Bridgettine Sisters at their convent for a morning of reflection with other St Brendan women! Optional Mass at Holy Family Church at 9 AM, then meet at the Bridgettine Convent, 40 N Grubb St in Columbus for breakfast (including the Sisters' baked goods!), reflections by Father Stash Dailey and one of our leaders, followed by prayer and song with the Sisters! Carpooling available. Cost is $10. Register at www.stbrendans.net/womens-groups

SOLEMNITY OF MARY, HOLY MOTHER OF GOD

When this Solemnity falls on a Monday, as is the case this year, the obligation to attend this Mass is abrogated (abolished/removed). Regardless, we hope you will still consider joining us for this special Mass dedicated to honoring Mary, here at St Brendan's on Monday, January 1, 9 AM in the Church.

HOW WE MANAGE SNOW ON CAMPUS

Our negotiated snow contract stipulates that our parking lot is plowed only if we reach TWO INCHES or more of snowfall and is pre-treated only if it is not raining (the rain would simply wash it away). The parish facilities team will be responsible for keeping the walkways cleared. When weather is inclement, please be careful when walking around the campus as it may be slippery in places.

Parish activities remain open if we are at a Level 1 Snow Emergency, but people should carefully consider whether they can safely reach the campus and attend events. If a Level 2 Snow Emergency is declared, the entire campus closes, including Mass and all events. We will alert you via ParishStaq Communications and social media if this happens. School parents will be alerted by FACTS communications of any school closures or delays.

The Parish office remains open during regular hours, unless we reach a Level 2 Snow Emergency, in which case, the office will close.

COLUMBUS CATHOLIC CONFERENCES

Both men's and women's 2024 conferences are dedicated to the Glory and Beauty of the Eucharist. The Women's Conference on Saturday, February 17, features speakers Heather Khym, Archbishop Timothy Broglio, Fr John Burns, Claire Dwyer, Fr Timothy Anastos, and the Emcee is our very own Director of Missionary Discipleship, Jen Rice! The Men's Conference on February 24, features speakers Chris Stefanick, John Edwards, and Fr Burke Masters. Both events include Mass, religious organizations, Adoration and plenty of food and fellowship. For details or to register, visit www.columbuscatholicwomen.com or www.CatholicMensMinistry.com

BAPTISMAL FONT BLESSING

Our new Baptismal Font, which was recently installed in the church, was blessed during the School Mass by Bishop Earl K. Fernandes on December 20.

We hope that you received our Christmas gift to you of Beautiful Eucharist – a collection of ponderings on the Eucharist by contemporary Catholic writers. We continue to highlight some of the inspirations you will find in its pages...

"It dawned on me that either we truly were crazy as Catholics in worshipping, adoring, and consuming bread as 'the Body of Christ,' or it had to actually be the real thing. There could be no in-between. This is not a 'This is true for you, but not for me' situation. It either isn't Jesus or it really is, and the Eucharist is truly the Bread of Life. It's a situation akin to what C.S. Lewis called the 'Trilemma': Jesus Christ was either a 1) liar, a 2) lunatic, or 3) Lord. We can't have Jesus as a 'nice teacher' who also claims to be God in His ability to forgive sins, rise from the dead, and declare that you must eat His flesh to have eternal life." – Bobby Angel

"But there were so many Christian denominations. Which one was real? I determined to start investigating by visiting all my Christian friends' different churches. But wait. Why not start with the Catholic Church? OK. What makes the Catholic Church different from all the other Christian churches? The Most Blessed Sacrament. It wasn't like each Christian church was claiming: "No! He's in our box! We have Him!" They didn't even have boxes. Sooo... if Jesus was truly present in the tabernacles of Catholic churches all over the world, then this was His Church, and I needed to stop disbelieving and fighting against many of her other doctrines." – Sister Helena Burns, FSP

"We all have questions that we need answered, and we all need advice from time to time. But when we need advice we tend to ask people who know just about nothing about nothing, instead of going to the man who has all the answers. All the answers are in the tabernacle. Jesus has all the answers and he patiently waits for us in the tabernacle, day and night, to share those answers with us. Next time you are grappling with a decision stop by your church and ask Jesus for his advice. Receiving Jesus in the Eucharist is the ultimate spiritual experience, but there is also something powerful about just sitting in his presence." – Matthew Kelly

Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

Gen 15:1-6; 21:1-3 | Heb 11:8, 11-12, 17-19 | Lk 2:22-40 or Lk 2:22, 39-40

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

St Teresa of Calcutta once said, "If we love, naturally we will try to do something. First in our own home, our next door neighbor, in the country we live, in the whole world." In this quote we see a shift from the idyllic to a hard dose of reality: love means sacrifice and service. Perhaps it's worth asking ourselves: Does our family always get our best self? None of us is perfect, so the honest answer is probably no. If it's tempting to think, "well, the Holy Family was perfect, so what does this feast have to do with our family?" let's remember we are celebrating the Feast of the HOLY Family, not the feast of the perfect family. Yes, they were holy. They embodied this in their faith and devotion in those expanding circles of which St Teresa spoke. They gave to God first - in today's Gospel we see the family travel to Jerusalem to present Jesus in the temple. They then returned to Nazareth where Jesus grew strong and was "filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him."

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

What does this feast mean for us today? It means that being a holy family is not unattainable. St John Paul II once said: "The Redeemer of the world chose the family as the place for his birth and growth." (2001) In other words, God's will was fulfilled in the simplest and most ordinary of human circumstances when Jesus was born to Mary and Joseph in a stable. He sanctified what had been profaned by sin. Are our families perfect? No. But are we holy? That is our baptismal vocation and is within our reach each and every day. With the dawn of the new year, let's make an effort to place Christ at the center of our lives. Let's try to love our family members with all our heart, and bear witness in our actions and words. And finally, and most importantly, we must pray with and for one another.

PRAY Family prayer is powerful and transformative, uniting and equipping us to go out into the world each day and bear witness. Pray together: Jesus, Mary and Joseph, graciously hear our prayer.

J.O.I.N. NEEDS YOUR HELP

JOIN (Joint Organization for Inner-City Needs) is often a "stop-gap" for our neighbors who live paycheck to paycheck. Basic supplies like toilet paper, soap, shampoo, conditioner, multi-purpose cleaning solutions, dish soap and laundry soap are items that people request at JOIN daily. Meeting these most basic needs, when you don't have them, is a huge relief. If you would like to donate an item or two, it would be a gift to the neighbors we serve at JOIN. Please drop items in the green bin in St Brendan church gathering space or call Lisa Keita at 614-241-2530, or email lkeita@columbuscatholic.org to find out more.
