MESSAGE FROM BEN ROMAKER

As we conclude Catholic Schools Week here at St Brendan, the 50th anniversary of the nationwide celebration, we turn our attention to preparations for the '24-'25 school year. Well—some of us do. Teachers and children will be quick to remind me that I've fast-forwarded through a 3-month break somewhere in there!

As of this weekend, correspondence has been shared with school families that explains how financial support from the parish will work moving forward. Treat this as a third touchpoint to hopefully reach all parents while also updating parish families on the school.

In the era of universal EdChoice, all school families are entitled to a scholarship. In turn, all school families are encouraged to claim the monies available to them. For most families, EdChoice will be the most common and bounteous financial aid awarded in 2024-25 with every family receiving between $650 and $6,165 per child. Other state scholarships, such as the Jon Peterson Special Needs Scholarship (JPS), will also be quite common among our families.

Currently, a child can only receive one state scholarship, meaning a family receiving the vital aid of JPS might miss out on a sizable sum from an EdChoice voucher. We don't want parents to forego this crucial support and programming for their child in order to attain a large lump from EdChoice. This is where we intend to jump in and further assist families in this position or others that feel left behind by EdChoice. Fr Bob's letter to parents outlines a variety of other methods of financial aid available to families after they apply for their respective state scholarship.

In the wake of a rigid parish subsidy, and to maximize the benefits of EdChoice, we are formally naming and instituting 'Parish Needs-based Grants (PNG)' for the fall. This flexible method of awarding tuition assistance will ensure a Catholic education is affordable for all who seek it.

The burgeoning Emmaus Road Scholarship Fund will soon serve as the primary means of awarding support from the parish. In 2023, we raised over $125,000 to award to families for this upcoming school year. While this incredible opportunity is still being overlooked by many would-be heroes, I'm tremendously appreciative of the roughly 100 families that stepped up, called in, or listened to how they could make a real impact at no cost to themselves. This uptick from $14,250 in the previous year will go a long way in dramatically supporting dozens of school families, and I'm excited for what another year of momentum can become! Please join me in spreading the word.

The aforementioned letter from Fr Bob details even more methods of tuition assistance available to school families. The deadline to submit is March 15th. A record amount of financial aid was awarded this year, and with your patience and diligence, we'll break the record again in the fall. We remain faithfully committed to supporting young families seeking an affordable Catholic education. May God bless our school, its faculty, and students. —Thank You!

THE EUCHARIST AND THE SAINTS: ST MAXIMILIAN KOLBE

In a world that can be cold and hard, violent and at times brutal, the saints prove that our humanity has a better side. The saints fostered this better side with spiritual disciplines and acts of loving service. These acts required personal sacrifices that can be directly linked to the Cross via the Eucharist.

St Maximilian Kolbe was a priest in Poland during WWII. After Germany invaded Poland, he organized a temporary hospital in the monastery where he lived, with the help of a few brothers who remained. Between 1939 and 1941, they provided shelter and care for thousands of refugees who were fleeing Nazi persecution. This included hiding more than 2,000 Jewish men, women, and children from the Germans.

The center of daily life at the monastery was perpetual Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Kolbe recognized the evil that was confronting the world and called for constant prayer before the Eucharist. The rise of evil led Kolbe to place Jesus at the heart of his community. These were his words to the people, "Jesus is the first citizen of Niepokalanow (the monastery), the elder Brother and Bridegroom of souls, present in the Eucharist. He makes us brothers. He warms our hearts with mutual love."

Eventually, the monastery was shut down. Kolbe was arrested and sent to Auschwitz. Kolbe volunteered to take the place of one of 10 men who would be starved to death as punishment for an escape there. After two weeks without food or water, Kolbe was the only one alive. The guards killed him with a lethal injection so they could reuse the bunker. Maximilian Kolbe had laid down his life in small ways for other people thousands of times before that day in Auschwitz. You and I may never find ourselves in a situation like that, but each day is filled with opportunities to sacrifice in love for another person. What small sacrifice, a Eucharistic moment, are you willing to make today for somebody else?

TIME TO RENEW! CATHOLIC TIMES

NATIONAL
Eucharistic Revival

Coming to St Brendan the Navigator

The National Eucharistic Revival has invited all parishes to participate in this study to immerse ourselves in the presence of Jesus: who He is, how He saved us, how He is with us, and the Bread He provided for the journey. Each session contains a video of content, scripture, and the chance to hear bishops, clergy and personal testimonies from Catholics across the country. Group discussion and prayer round out the sessions.

Tuesday morning (9–10:30 AM) and evening (7–8:30 PM) sessions are available beginning on 02/20. See the back of this page for the schedule. Jesus and the Eucharist is one of the many opportunities we have to deepen our faith and connection with Jesus Christ, preparing us for the Eucharistic Congress July 17-21 in Indianapolis, but also preparing us for our spiritual journey of life with Jesus and eternal life with Him one day in Heaven.

Begins February 20

SCHEDULE

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

02.20

What's Our Story?

The Bible is the story of God's love for us.
He created us out of love, redeemed us by his love,
and transforms us in his love.

02.27

Who is Jesus?

Jesus asked Simon Peter, "Who do you say that I am?"
He asks this same question of us:
Who do you say Jesus is?

03.12

Am I Saved?

Salvation is a gift from God through
Jesus Christ that requires our "yes."

03.19

Why a Church?

Jesus didn't simply leave us a written message or instruction manual to follow. He gave us a living, dynamic Church where we encounter him personally.

04.02

God is with Us

As one of the seven sacraments of the Church, Jesus established the Eucharist in order to accompany us throughout our earthly journey.

04.09

The Story of the Eucharist

From the Book of Genesis to the present day,
discover how the Cross is the new Tree of Life,
and the Eucharist is its fruit.

04.16

Bread for the Journey

Our participation at Mass is an offering of thanksgiving to God. We are then sent forth to share the Miracle we have received.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Why me? It could be a flat tire, a lost job or a serious illness. When inconvenient, unpleasant or even downright horrible things happen, it is understandable to wonder why God allows it. I know that is what goes through my head in extreme adversity. God can do all things, so why wouldn't he change "this thing" for me? In the Gospel, we see Jesus curing Simon Peter's mother-in-law of her illness, but many of us don't have our prayers answered like that. Instead, we may relate more to Job in today's first reading when he says life is a "drudgery" and he "shall not see happiness again." The reality is that God's ways are not our ways, so we can't know why some people endure hardship while others receive miracles. But we can change how we respond to those hardships when they arrive. Just as this passage from Job is understood better within the context of the whole book, discrete events in our lives are part of something larger than ourselves. Praying with Scripture, including reading more of Job, can help us understand how God is molding, refining, and yes – always loving us.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

When we are tempted to feel like Job is a good time to embrace the age-old practice of "offering it [suffering] up." As a child, my parents explained that offering it up meant I was telling God I would happily suffer in exchange for it helping someone else. What does this really mean? Everything stems from our being united to Christ in our baptism and being participants in his priestly, prophetic and royal office. We offer ourselves, our whole being, including our worship, praise, joy, gratitude, bodies and even sufferings to God as sacrifice. So, to "offer it [suffering] up" is a powerful way of taking a bad situation and allowing it to be used for something good; to give our inconvenience, pain and grief to the Lord and ask him to unite it to Christ's suffering for the good of others. It is a redemptive act, a form of love-in-action. St Paul is a great example of someone who suffered gladly, and in today's second reading he shares that "to the weak [he] became weak, to win over the weak."
