MESSAGE FROM MAGGIE AGRA

SACRAMENTS – “Signs of grace, instituted by Christ and entrusted to the Church, by which divine life is dispensed to us” (CCC 1131)

Here in the Office of Evangelization and Catechesis, we have been preparing our students to receive the Sacraments of First Eucharist and Confirmation. These families and children have been intentionally preparing and learning about their respective sacrament for a year at this point. Do you remember what it was like to prepare for your First Eucharist, or your Confirmation? When I was reflecting upon my own experience, I remember the classes and the rehearsals, and then I remember not really thinking about it after it was over. A sacrament didn't mean much to me. And I think it is easy for us to forget the realities behind the different sacraments, and simply go through the motions. But what are sacraments? And how do they affect us?

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church (a book which presents and summarizes the teachings of the Church) sacraments are defined as, “efficacious signs of grace, instituted by Christ and entrusted to the Church, by which divine life is dispensed to us” (CCC 1131). Sacraments, being efficacious, mean that they do what they say they do. In other words, through Baptism, we actually become adopted sons and daughters of God. In Reconciliation, our sins are truly forgiven! The bread becomes the Body of Christ during Communion at Mass, and Confirmation seals us in our baptismal identity. The words which are spoken affect the reality around us, whether we can see it or not.

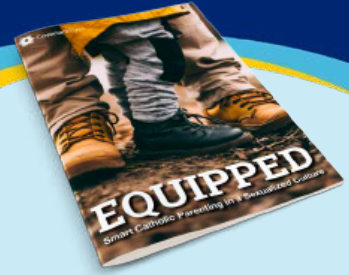

The next part of the definition reminds us that Christ instituted each of the sacraments, and has given the Church the responsibility of stewarding them. Sacraments have a supernatural nature! They are unlike anything else we know.

Lastly, sacraments communicate divine life to us - which is just another phrase for the fact that we receive grace in the sacraments. Not only are sacraments supernatural, but they also have a supernatural effect on us. We are given the strength to love more like Christ does! We are healed, ennobled, drawn closer to the Trinity through grace. It roots us more deeply in our Christian identity and allows us to live more boldly. The gift of grace could not be overstated. Sacraments are an invitation to receive this grace more readily and cooperate with it. We can dispose ourselves to be able to receive the graces by reflecting on the realities of the sacrament, frequenting them often, and intentionally dying to self. Each time we receive a sacrament, we have the opportunity to look more like Jesus, and to know and love Him better.

My invitation and challenge to you is to take some time and reflect on your experience of receiving the Sacraments. How can you be more purposeful and intentional each time you receive them?

“My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.”
~ 2 Corinthians 12:9

SAFE HAVEN SUNDAY

GET EQUIPPED TO PROTECT YOUR CHILDREN

Throughout the Diocese of Columbus, Safe Haven Sunday will be recognized this weekend. This year, a special focus is paid to the awareness and prevention of human trafficking as well as the hazards of pornography.

The family home is to be a safe haven. But the inappropriate use of technology in the home deprives it of this role, and is the greatest threat to the sanctity of marriages and families today. Pornography and other online threats are often just one click away, and parents can feel overwhelmed with not knowing how to best protect their children.

In a constantly-connected digital world, Safe Haven Sunday helps you start the conversation of online purity or continue it. Most teens and young adults believe that not recycling is more immoral than viewing pornography. Statistics show that 22% of young people ages 18-24 consider porn to be good for society and 8% believe it's "very good for society." Fight back against today's culture that normalizes inappropriate images with a free ebook from Covenant Eyes entitled Equipped. This resource will show you the four walls of protection and how to implement them in your home today! It is available at <https://tinyurl.com/Free-Equipped>

Safe Haven Sunday is an annual initiative that is supported by the Diocese of Columbus which aims to give parents guidance on protecting their children. Vital materials from the USCCB's anti-trafficking and child abuse prevention programs can be found at <https://columbuscatholic.org/safe-haven-sunday> and a video directly from Bishop Earl K. Fernandes can be viewed at <https://youtu.be/tlbT7XywhZI>

PRAYERS AFTER COMMUNION

What do you do after receiving Communion? We know it is a time of prayer, but we can easily be distracted by what is going on around us. One suggestion is to pray something already established, either reading it off of a little card or working to memorize it. This deepens our time with the Lord who has just entered in and gives Him the time and space to work within us. Each week, we will suggest a prayer or two to try after Communion.

This Prayer to the Blessed Virgin after Communion, taken from an old prayer book, brings to mind the great help Mary can give us with Jesus as we strive for Eternal Life. It also touches on as the immense sorrow as well that she experienced at Calvary on our behalf.

O Mary, you desire so much to see Jesus loved; if you love me, this is the favor which I ask of you, to obtain for me a great personal love of Jesus Christ. You obtain from your Son whatever you please; pray then for me that I may never lose the grace of God and that I may increase in holiness and perfection from day to day. By that grief which you suffered on Calvary, when you beheld Jesus expire on the cross, obtain for me a happy death, that by loving Jesus, and you, my Mother, on earth I may receive the reward of loving and blessing you eternally in heaven. Amen.

Third Sunday of Easter

Acts 3:13-15, 17-19 | 1 Jn 2:1-5a | Lk 24:35-48

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

It's only been two weeks since Easter, but already the holiday can seem like another item checked off our to-do lists. It's easy to get complacent as we go about our busy lives - marking celebrations, important dates and gatherings on the calendar. Today's readings remind us that the Resurrection is not just a story or a metaphor about something ordinary that happened more than 2,000 years ago. It was so different and so shock-ing that it trembled the very earth, and nothing has been the same since! Luke describes the confusion the disciples felt when they first saw Jesus in his resurrected body. Here was their Lord and teacher, back from the dead, but not as a ghost or spirit as they might have expected: He was just as real as before. He was eating, speaking, touching, and interacting. And yet he was different. He could arrive in a locked room without using the door, pass among people unnoticed (as on the way to Emmaus), and give gifts of wisdom and insight directly to the disciples. Today's Gospel offers Jesus' explanation that these things were done to fulfill the promises God made to the prophets.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

The fulfillment of God's promises in Jesus, and his death and resurrection, was not meant to benefit only a few people. We, as his disciples, must spread the Good News that sin and death don't have the last word. St. Peter gives us an inspiring example today when he speaks to the people. Look at how different he is from the man who denied Jesus three times! He boldly goes into the crowd - the same crowd that condemned Jesus to death - and preaches on what a gift we all have been given by Jesus' sacrifice. Peter knows, and we know, that Jesus' defeat of death means everything. We are freely offered salvation through Christ's saving action. Like the members of that crowd, we're invited to be witnesses to this great act of love, and to re-align our lives with God's will. Like Peter, we can speak the Good News without fear.

ACCOMPANY

How can we imitate Christ in the way he reached out to his disciples who were wracked with fear and doubt? Perhaps we know somebody who feels trapped by sin, or unworthy of good things, or a constant failure. Let's be honest, sometimes that person is us! We all need encouragement and accompaniment from time to time. Find a way to be that encouragement for someone this week who's having a tough time. You don't have to fix their problems; just listen, let them know you care, and offer a sincere and hopeful encouragement that brighter days lie ahead.
